Planning your 8 Week Lesson Tips

Whether you’ll be making cupcakes, painting kitties, shooting hoops, scoring goals or planting tomatoes… here are some helpful things to consider when mapping out your CoachArt curriculum for your student(s).

Overview
Get focused! Write a brief paragraph describing what your lessons will be about.

Objectives
What is your main overarching goal for the lessons? List multiple objectives, which will lead towards the goal.

- Objective 1: i.e. Teach “Cameron/Lily” how to make a stop motion animation.
- Objective 2: i.e. Empower “his/her” abilities to draw. i.e. to confidently cook.
- Objective 1: i.e. Effectively share the tools and knowledge needed to succeed!

Activities
What activities will you be doing during your lessons? (Provide a one-sentence description of what each lesson will focus on)

1. Lesson 1: i.e. Finding Inspiration, Establishing Theme: Exploring Flavors of Latin America
2. Lesson 2: i.e. Writing Your Story, Guacamole & Pico De Gallo
3. Lesson 3: i.e. Drawing Characters and Backgrounds, Homemade Tortillas
4. Lesson 4: i.e. Healthy Artist Mindset, Burritos
5. Lesson 5: i.e. Emulating Artists, Tamales
6. Lesson 6: i.e. draw draw draw!, Fun with Flan
7. Lesson 7: i.e. Posting and Presenting Your Art, Horchata
8. Lesson 8: i.e. In-home Gallery Celebration!, Student homemade meal with family and siblings

Materials
What materials will you be using for your lessons?

Adaptations
Based on student’s individual challenges and restrictions, how will you adapt your lesson to meet their needs? Remember, this is just a lesson outline. Be prepared to adjust your plan as you go. And don’t hesitate to reach out to us for support. ☺
